NOMINATION OF THE 2010–2012 SSR TRAINEE REPRESENTATIVE

Deadline: 15 January 2010

PAST-PRESIDENT

Asgerally T. Fazleabas
University of Michigan

The candidate who is elected by the Trainee membership from the selected nominees will serve a two-year term of office beginning at the time of the 2010 Annual Meeting.

SECRETARY

Susan M. Quirk
Cornell University

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. You must currently be a Trainee member of SSR and anticipate remaining so during the term of office. (Trainee members are predoctoral students or postdoctoral fellows who have not yet become Regular members.)
2. You must nominate yourself or be nominated by a Trainee, Regular, or Emeritus member of SSR; be selected for election by the Trainee Affairs Committee; and be elected by the general Trainee membership.
3. You must be responsible, energetic, and creative.

TREASURER

Martin M. Matzuk
Baylor College of Medicine

OPPORTUNITIES:

1. Represent the Trainee membership on the Board of Directors in an effort to maintain and improve SSR services to Trainees.
2. Develop communication and managerial skills by working with established researchers, editors, and other members of SSR.
3. Work with other scientists to improve and safeguard SSR functions.

EDITORS-IN-CHIEF

Bruce D. Murphy
University of Montreal
Bernard Robaire
McGill University

OBLIGATIONS:

1. Represent the Trainee membership in a non-voting capacity at the SSR board meetings twice each year: at the Annual Meeting and at a winter meeting (winter meeting expenses are paid).
2. Co-manage the Trainee Affairs Committee functions (Placement Service, Trainee-sponsored Forum, Trainee-Mentor Luncheon, Larry Ewing Memorial Trainee Travel Fund, Trainee Representative Election, and commemorative fund-raising t-shirt).
3. Encourage Trainee participation in our Society.

DIRECTORS

Janice L. Bailey
Thomas E. Curry, Jr.
Janice P. Evans
Jock Findlay
Patricia A. Hunt
Teresa K. Woodruff

The Trainee Representative position offers Trainee members a unique opportunity to participate in the affairs of our Society. Please take advantage of this opportunity and become involved!
