2015—Affiliate Membership in the SSR

The Society for the Study of Reproduction (SSR) and the Society for Reproductive Biology (SRB) have agreed to offer Affiliate Membership in each's respective Society to the members of the affiliate society. Our mutual purpose is to encourage closer links between SRB members and their SSR colleagues, allowing an open flow of news and ideas. An Affiliate SSR Membership provides many benefits for SRB members:

- Better opportunities for communication with SSR members through access to newsletters and electronic messages (SSREPRO).
- Online subscription to Biology of Reproduction, the official journal of the SSR.
- Advance notification of the SSR Annual Meeting and the Call for Abstracts.
- Registration for the Annual Meeting at member rates.

To become an Affiliate Member of the SSR, complete the form on the following page and fax it, with credit card information, to 608-256-4610, or send by regular mail, with either a check or credit card information, to the address at the bottom of the page.

Affiliate SSR Membership costs US $95, and offers the following:

1. Access to Biology of Reproduction online.
2. Early notification of the Annual Meeting and Call for Abstracts.
3. SSR member rates for the Annual Meeting.

Note that full membership in the SSR remains available to SRB members at US $225. The additional privileges of full membership are:

1. Member rates for publication in Biology of Reproduction (currently US $650 per article for members; US $1,400 per article for non-members).
2. SSREPRO (email announcements).
3. The privilege to nominate, vote, hold office, and serve on SSR committees.

If you have questions, please contact the SSR:
